

Cassidy capers!

☐ Times are a-changing for those famed Cassidy kids, David and Shaun.

The former Partridge Family stars are turning to more serious acting these days, with David already earning plaudits for his performance as a youthful undercover agent, Dan Shay in the one-hour Man Undercover show. He is pictured in a scene from the series, above, with Wendy Rastatter who plays his wife.

The younger Shaun has shown a dramatic talent in a three-hour telemovie, A Very Special Love. He and co-star Linda Purl appear as two retarded young people who fall in love and want to marry, despite the objections of their families. They are pictured at right in a scene from the show, which is based on a true story of a couple's struggle for normal happiness. The young people eventually overcome their families' objections.
