

A close-up portrait of David Cassidy. He has dark, wavy hair and is looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. He is wearing a light blue, ribbed sweater. His hands are clasped together in front of his chin, and a gold ring is visible on his left ring finger. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

David Cassidy became the ultimate heart-throb pin-up, thanks to classic early-'70s feelgood musical sitcom The Partridge Family.
