

David's fans fund their own event

APRIL 12, 2022, on what would have been David Cassidy's 72nd birthday, an event at Las Vegas has been totally fan-funded.

Set to rival the likes of Donny and Marie Osmond's Star Event, it will be attended by many of David's friends and fans. He performed in the Las Vegas shows EFX and At the Copa and co-produced the Las Vegas show The Rat Pack is Back. His Las Vegas stretch started in 1996, when he replaced former Phantom of the Opera star Michael Crawford as the lead actor in EFX, a show at the MGM Grand.

David co-created and co-produced The Rat Pack is Back with Don Reo, at the Desert Inn and Sahara from 1999 to 2002. In Rat Pack, David portrayed Bobby Darin occasionally, taking the stage to sing Mack the Knife.

David achieved great success in Las Vegas and by the late 1990s and early 2000s, David was a pioneer of the long-term star residency in Las Vegas. The Las Vegas Walk of Stars started in October, 2004, to honour those who helped make Vegas famous. Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra, Bobby Darin and Donny and Marie Osmond are a few of the stars who form part of a four-mile stretch on both sides of Las Vegas Blvd between Sahara Ave and Russell Road.

Wayne Newton was first to be honoured on October 26, 2004, followed, in 2005, by Frank Marino, Liberace, Rich Little, Line Renaud and Dick Jensen. David Cassidy fans have funded the star through combining efforts globally.

The star event will not only be a celebration of David's Legacy, it will also raise funds for an animal foundation named in David's honour 'I think I love you foundation' can be found here: About | I Think I Love You Animal.

If you would like to support the fans night and event donations would be appreciated.
