

Born to be Ruled by Love!

David's horoscope meant him for stardom. It created for him a destiny that would give him honours, success, good fortune and a good marriage.

The highest planet in David's chart is VENUS so he will always be dominated by love — love of life, love of his work, and love of romance and adventure.

His birthday makes him an Aries and he will have a lot of the dynamic Aries traits: adventuresome, independent and high spirited.

Aries subjects make good leaders, who can be so energetic with some projects and ideas that they wear out less active signs of the Zodiac. So it is important for David always to be busy!

ARIES

(born March 21—April 20): Girls born under the same sign as David will have a lot of things in common, but it will certainly be a fiery relationship unless the girl is willing to give in. Aries men and women both like to be the leader but one will have to give way to the other. And David will have to assert himself early in the affair. You will be able to help David with his career by being very ambitious and tireless. Although you are both Fire Signs, be careful in romance not to be too unresponsive and cool.

TAURUS

(born April 21—May 21) You are ruled by the Planet of Love, VENUS, David's highest Planet. It is important for you not to be stubborn, or too conservative, but David will add a lot of adventure to your life. Watch your temper! Mars-ruled David and a Venus-ruled Taurus could have a very stimulating and satisfying physical relationship. Taurus is very sensual.

GEMINI

(born May 22—June 21) is an Air Sign and like Aries very restless and active. Gemini will love to travel with David, and being very ingenious and interested in many things will never be boring. Being witty Miss Gemini will help David's moods. But be careful not to spend too much time talking or you will put out David's romantic fire! There will be a lot of laughter and happiness for both of you.

CANCER

(born June 22—July 23) is ruled by the MOON, and as David's Ascendant is also Cancer you may find a lot of sensitivity and feelings in common. You can appeal to David through your love of the home, and perhaps through your cooking. Try a home cooked meal and see how he reacts! Try not to cling on to him too much, even though he will love this side of you. Both of you will be ambitious and make a great team. Physically he will be attracted to you and as you are very ardent and responsive your love life will be excellent. But don't be possessive!

LEO

(born July 24—August 23) is the Queen of the Zodiac, and another Fire Sign. Both will want to be leaders, and in the public eye. Publicity will be important for both, and Leo will tend to be a little too dramatic and flamboyant, so take a warning to play it down a little and let David shine on his own and you get the benefits of being the one he loves. Leo is the sign of sexual pleasure, so your love life will be very satisfactory, especially for David.

VIRGO

(born August 24—September 23) is another intellectual sign like Gemini, and may spend too much time talking. David loves conversation, but Virgo's have to learn to stop at the right moment. Try not to act prudish, for inside you can be as romantic and ardent as any Sign. Try to be as feminine as possible and try not to be over critical, and he will find you very good company. Be his assistant and you will help him in his climb to fame.

LIBRA

(born September 24—October 23) is another sign ruled by the Planet of Love and Beauty, VENUS. Learn to understand David early and your relationship will be successful. Librans do tend to be a little selfish. In this relationship you must be more giving. The fact that you look so lovely and attractive to everyone can be an obstacle with David, but he will also be proud to be with you.

Remember he needs some freedom. Use the proper strategy and he won't feel "possessed". Don't lose your identity. Love making will be the most important ingredient of this partnership.

SCORPIO

(born October 24—November 22) You have the same Planet, Mars, ruling you. This will be a dynamic partnership. Work for togetherness, don't let your strong individuality and ambitiousness come between you. Be more relaxed — not so intense when you are together. There will be
