By PHIL STRASSBERG

The "Silent Force" premieres Monday, Channel 3, 5:30 p.m. Stars are (from left) Ed Nelson, Lynda Day and Percy Rodriques.

"The Young Lawyers" will bow in Monday at 8:45 p.m. on Channel 3. Pictured above: Frank Converse, Judy Pace and Lee J. Cobb (center).

LEFT: Chris George stars as a man who is immune from disease and old age in "The Immortal," premiering Thursday, Channel 3 at 9 p.m. RIGHT: Vince Edwards is "Matt Lincoln" director of a hotline service for troubled youngsters, bowing Thursday, on Channel 3 at 6:30 p.m.

The second week of the new television season unfolds tonight with CBS' "Tim Conway Comedy Hour" closing that network's 1970 entries in the video survival derby and ABC opening up its roster of an even dozen hopefuls with "The Young Rebels."

Through next Saturday, ABC will parade 11 of its new products. The 12th, "The Most Deadly Game," will not arrive until Saturday, Oct. 10.

The first segment of the hour-long "THE YOUNG REBELS," a band o young people who worked to sabotage the efforts of the British during the early days of the American Revolution and to help the young country to be free, is paraded tonight. The series stars Rick Ely, Lou Gossett, Hilarie Thompson and Alex Henteloff.

shows, heads up his own variety pro-Belland, David Somerville, Art Metrano and Bonnie Boland. Guest stars, too.

ABC's new prime-time series, "NFL MONDAY NIGHT FOOT-BALL," starts running for touchdowns tomorrow with the New York Jets facing the Cleveland Browns. The complete 13-game schedule will be seen live, naturally, and in color, of course.

Because of the pigskin schedule, incidentally, the Dick Cavett Show will change its format Monday evenings for those 13 weeks. Each Monday show will be 45 minutes long with one guest only. Already signed for segments-Shirley MacLaine and Lauren Bacall.

Perhaps it's best to clarify the above. The Cavett show will not follow the football game on West Coast programming, inasmuch as the latter will start at 6 p.m. here (9 p.m. on the East Coast). Two new series, detailed next, will commence after the games and Cavett will follow. Check the television listings for all actual Another Monday night entry on the ABC schedule is "THE YOUNG LAW-YERS," an hour dramatic series focusing on law students in a Neighborhood Law Office in Boston gaining legal experience on actual cases. The premise is based on fact. Massachusetts and 13 other states allow prospective attorneys to represent clients and plead court cases under practicing attorney's supervision. Lee J. Cobb, Zalman King and Judy Pace head the cast.

ABC's "THE SILENT FORCE" likewise debuts tomorrow night. With Phoenix's own Lynda Day starring with Ed Nelson and Percy Rodrigues, the dramatic half hour show concerns a trio of government undercover agents who work against organized

Danny Thomas returns to television on Wednesday night over ABC when the first half hour chapter of "MAKE ROOM FOR GRANDDADDY" is telecast. It follows the contemporary adventures of Danny Williams and his family. Marjorie Lord is back as Danny's wife and daughter Linda, played again by Angela Cartright, is now an 18-year-old beauty. Son Rusty Hamer's back but grown up and married, as is daughter Sherry Jackson, who lives in Japan with her Armybased husband.

That same evening ABC debuts its Tim Conway, who has been all over one-hour police drama, "DAN AU-TV as a performer in "McHale's GUST," starring Burt Reynolds in the Navy" and on numerous variety title role of a detective lieutenant in homicide. Also in the series about a gram, "THE TIM CONWAY COME- police department in a small ficti-DY HOUR," on CBS starting this eve- tious California town are Norman ning. He'll have as regulars Bruce Fell, Richard Anderson, Ned Romero and Ena Hartman.

> ABC struts forth a quartet of new programs on Thursday evening. The first is "MATT LINCOLN," an hourlong drama starring Vince Edwards in the title role as a social psychiatrist who practices "preventive" psychia-

The second Thursday evening entry is "BAREFOOT IN THE PARK," a 30-minute version of the Neil Simon play and movie but with the main characters played by black actors. Heading the cast are Scoey Mitchlll, Tracy Reed, Nipsy Russell and Thelma Carpenter.

Another comedy series, "THE ODD COUPLE," likewise based on characters created by Neil Simon in the play and movie, follows. It stars Tony Randall and Jack Klugman in the title roles. The half-hour frolic has Tony as fussy photographer Felix while Jack is sloppy sportswriter Os-

The fourth Thursday evening ABC series is the hour action drama, "THE IMMORTAL," starring Christopher George as a racing driver who learns that his blood contains antibodies that make him immune to all diseases, including old age.

The final ABC entry commences Friday night when "THE PAR-TRIDGE FAMILY" comes on the small screen. It's a 30-minute family comedy show with a beat because the Partridges form their own vocal-instrumental group and find themselves in show business. The mother-widow is played by Shirley Jones and the eldest of her brood of five is portrayed by her actual stepson, David Cassidy (Jack's lad from a previous

"The Young Rebels" premieres today on Channel 3 at 4 p.m. The stars are Rick Ely, center, Lou Gossett, standing, and Alex Henteloff.

TOP: "Barefoot in the Park" stars Tracy Reed, left, and Scoey Mitchlll. The comedy series starts Thursday, Channel 3, 8:30 p.m.

LEFT: Tony Randall, left, and Jack Klugman recreate the smash Broadway hit and motion picture of two divorced men who become roommates in "The Odd Couple," Thursday, Channel 3, 8:30 p.m.

THE ARIZONA REPUBLIC

Phoenix, Sunday, Sept. 20, 1970

WEEK'S BEST PROGRAMS

TODAY

8:30 a.m. - Face the Nation - Guest to be announced. (10)

9 a.m. - NCAA Football Highlights -A look at the four most important games played yesterday. (3)

9:30 — Meet the Press — An interview with Elliott L. Richardson, new HEW secretary. (12)

9:30 a.m. - NFL Football - Dallas at Philadelphia. (10)

10 a.m. - Pro Football - Houston at at Pittsburgh and Kansas City at Minnesota. (12)

10:30 a.m. - Issues and Answers -Guest is Leonard Woodcock, new president of United Auto Workers. (3)

Noon - Public Affairs Special - Phoenix City Councilman John T. Katsenes

Yankee Doodle Society, stop the Redcoats' pursuit of the Continental Army.

6 p.m. - Sunday Night Movie - Frank Sinatra stars as a private-eye in "Tony Rome." (3)

7 p.m. - Tim Conway - A comedy show with Art Castrano, Bonnie Boland, and the team of Bruce Belland and David Somerville. (c)

7 p.m. - Bold Ones - Tisha Sterling and Michael Anderson Jr. in "This Will Really Kill You," the first "doctor" segments. (12)

7:30 p.m — Questions — "To Smoke or Not to Smoke" is tonight's topic. (8)

8 p.m. - It's Special - Julie London performs. (12)

MONDAY

8 p.m.-Monday Night at the Movies-Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton star in "Boom." (12)

8:45 p.m. — The Young Lawyers — Law student Aaron Silverman defends an intern sued for $50,000 (3)

TUESDAY

6:30 p·m. — Don Knotts—Don is joined by Dan Blocker, Leslie Uggams, Tommy Roe and Elaine Joyce. (12)

9 p.m. - NET Special - A special report on the hearings before the Child Development and Mass Media Forum of the White House Conference on Children.

9 p.m. - CBS Report - "How Peaceful the Peaceful Atom." (10)

9:30 p.m. - New Special-"Campaign '70" governor and Senate nominees are

"The Partridge Family" first showing is Friday on Channel 3, 7:30 p.m. Stars are. Shirley Jones, Jeremy Gelwaks, Suzanne Crough, Susan Dey, Danny Bonaduce and David Cassidy.