

David Cassidy

To Appear

In Macon

David Cassidy famous star of "The Partridge Family" will appear at the Macon Coliseum, Sunday, March 19th at 4:00 P.M.

Cassidy was literally discovered by the younger generation after a few appearances playing feature roles on "Marcus Welby," "Ironside," "Bonanza," and others during the 1969-70 TV season. Soon after his episodes aired, stations and networks were inundated with fan mail for Cassidy . . . David Cassidy's future had apparently been decided for him, even before the first episode of "The Partridge Family" had aired.

In "The Partridge Family" David is able to combine acting with another love — music. In the role of "Keith Partridge" he is lead singer and plays the guitar in the family's musical combo. Off-screen, David, a natural musician, also plays the drums. Further more he is a composer and lyricist and his songs will be heard on the series and on forthcoming singles and albums.

Despite the fact that his father is the famous Jack Cassidy and his stepmother is the lovely Academy Award winner Shirley Mones, David has achieved his place strictly on his own.

He was born April 12 in New York City. He is 5'8" tall, weighs 130 pounds, has brown hair, hazel eyes and is single. He lives in the rustic canyon area of Hollywood.

The David Cassidy Show is a National Shows, Inc. Presentation.
