

David Cassidy Shocks Studio

HOLLYWOOD — David Cassidy has probably disappointed lots of his teen-bopper fans with an interview in a semi-pornographic, underground-type paper. It was not a family paper interview and his studio (Screen Gems) is not happy at all. The photo, inspired by Burt Reynolds, was not, as has been reported, of a nude David but it might as well have been. Obviously he doesn't believe that an entertainer has responsibility to his fans.
