

David Cassidy Plans First European Tour

HOLLYWOOD (Special) — With excitement building throughout England and Europe over David Cassidy's recordings, the dynamic "Partridge Family" star and rock star will make his first visit to London for personal appearances.

Cassidy will appear on the English TV program "Top of the Pop," and be the subject of a 45 minute BBC documentary—David Cassidy Around London.

In addition, Cassidy will be holding meetings to firm up his first European concert tour, which is slated for the spring of 1973. Cassidy will also visit several European capitols by charter jet—all on the same day!
