

DAVID THE FLOATING STAR: American pop star David Cassidy arrived in London to record some shows and promptly installed himself on a floating home on the river Thames. He has chartered the 120-ft luxury yacht Ocean Sabre for a five-day period at a cost of £1,800, to protect himself from screaming fans. Mind you, that won't necessarily keep the fans away. Already youngsters have been persuading the skippers of the regular Thames launches to make a small diversion to pass near Ocean Sabre. David, who played Keith Partridge, the lead singer

— S.I. photo with ABC-TV's "The Partridge Family", has played a major part in creating the sound that has resulted in a gold record on every album release. The first Partridge Family LP has now become a platinum record with sales above the two million mark. As David Cassidy, he has also earned a golden disc for his first solo appearance with the hit single "Cherish," and a gold album for the LP of the same name. It is therefore only fitting that a star riding such a crest of a wave should live on a boat. Here David Cassidy relaxes aboard Ocean Sabre.