“WILL YOU PLEASE print a picture of David Cassidy and write something about him?”

A Fan
INDIANAPOLIS

David was born in New York City April 12, 1950, the son of actor-singer Jack Cassidy and Evelyn Ward, a New York actress. From the time he was 4, David wanted to act. He got his start in the theater.

He has had leading guest roles on various television series such as Ironside, Medical Center and The Mod Squad. David has been singing since he was 3 and plays the electric guitar and drums.

David is 5 feet, 8 inches

“IN A MOVIE we saw recently on Channel 8, the color went off and later came back on. What is the reason for this?”

Curious
Indianapolis

The movie you are probably referring to is “Honor Thy Father” in which part of the show was shown in color and part in black and white for special effect.

“MY 5-YEAR-OLD son would like to know where he can write for pictures of Mike Connors, Chad Everett, and William Conrad. Also, my 2-year-old daughter would like to know where she can write for a picture of Lassie. Do we have to pay for them?”

Their mother
Greenwood

You can write for all four of them at CBS-TV, Television City, Hollywood, Calif. No, you don’t have to pay for them. (Don’t be surprised if it takes at least six months to get them — if you ever do.)

“I LIKE This is Your Life. I especially enjoyed the episode with Dana Andrews because I admire him for conquering his alcoholism.”

Tommy Thomson
Greensburg

Dana is definitely to be admired for his courage in publicly confessing his problem so as to help make driving safer.
