

MEET DAVID'S 'TWIN'!

TUESDAY SCENE

by DEBORAH THOMAS

Las Vegas, Nevada

MEET David Cassidy and David Cassidy. The David with the cowboy hat is the real McCoy. The David with the guitar is the superstar's stand-in on the Partridge Family TV series.

They may look alike, but there's one big difference—David No. 2 is a girl!

The filmmakers couldn't find a boy pretty enough to substitute for the fresh-faced idol, so they chose 25-year-old Jan Freeman instead.

David is finishing his last series with the Partridge Family and will then be doing a film.

The man he wants to co-star with him is none other than veteran comedian Charlie Chaplin.

Whether Mr. Chaplin wishes to make a Charlie of himself with David is another matter.

Meanwhile Darling David promises me he'll be with us in the spring. The American popsinger and TV idol ends a three-month world tour with concerts in Britain next May.

★ CABARET tear-jerker, Vikki Carr, has something to cry about.

She has been seriously ill with throat trouble. But when she couple of Cassidys: which one is for real?