

Girls hurt

SYDNEY, Sunday. — Eleven ambulances were needed to take to hospital many of the 60 girls who were injured when a frenzied crowd of 12,500 mobbed the stage to see singer David Cassidy at Randwick Racecourse yesterday. Many of the girls were semi-conscious, some had cuts and bruises and most were sobbing.