

Kennedy wins Logie

Graham
Kennedy

SYDNEY, Friday. — Graham Kennedy received a Logie tonight as the outstanding television personality in Australia.

Viewers throughout Australia saw him receive the gold award at the Southern Cross Hotel, Melbourne.

The Logies, Australia's major television awards, were presented by visiting stars Gina Lollobrigida, Macdonald Carey, Tige Andrews and David Cassidy.

Pat McDonald, the 'Number 96' actress, won the first gold Logie awarded to a female performer since 1970. She was named best actress for the second year in succession.

Former 'Homicide' actor Leonard Teale was named best actor for his role in the ABC series 'Seven Little Australians'. 'Number 96' was named the best drama, and 'Young Talent Time' the best musical variety. Debbie Byrne of 'Young Talent Time' was named the best teenage personality.

'The Aunty Jack Show' was named the best comedy show of the year and Bert Newton was named best compere of the year.