

Alias Mr Cassidy

The pop singer David Cassidy arrived in Sydney on Monday night using an assumed name and an uncharacteristic short haircut.

The 24-year-old US idol arrived unannounced to avoid a mobbing like the one he received when he visited Australia for a concert tour in March.

Cassidy is visiting Australia for pop awards which will be presented in Melbourne on Friday.

The English rock singer Gary Glitter, who will present the awards with David Cassidy, is expected to arrive tomorrow.
