

Teen-Agers Mob Cassidy, Glitter

Melbourne, Australia (AP) — Three hundred screaming teen-agers mobbed American pop singer David Cassidy and British singer Gary Glitter at Melbourne airport yesterday, breaking one of Cassidy's toenails and scratching his neck.

The two stars came to Melbourne for a King of Pop awards ceremony tonight.

The fans jumped barricades to get at the stars. Cassidy lost part of a toenail when the fans ripped off one of his leather sandals.
