

David Cassidy has spent the last month promoting his new RCA LP, "The Higher the Climb," traveling from city to city spreading the word that the album provides the first musical glimpse of the "real" David Cassidy. As opposed to the David Cassidy whose fame and musical style were "manufactured" by the creators of his old "Partridge Family" series.