David Cassidy married

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)— to retrieve the document Rock singer David Cassi- from a hotel and the servdy married actress Kay Lenz in a brief ceremony Sunday at one of Las Vegas' commercial mar- late entertainer Jack Casriage chapels.

"It was painless," said Cassidy as he and his bride jumped into a black limousine following the $35 service at the Little Church of the West on the Las Vegas "Strip."

Cassidy, 26, wore a black suit, while his bride, Poor Man, Part II." 24, wore a white lace peasant dress.

The service was delayed when Cassidy discovered upon arrival at the chapel that he had forgotten the marriage license.

A driver was dispatched ice proceeded about 15 minutes later.

Cassidy, the son of the sidy, gained worldwide fame in the early 1970s for his role as the lead singer in the "Partridge Family" television series.

Miss Lenz has had roles in the ABC television nov-els "Rich Man, Poor Man" and "Rich Man,