

Hoffman Wins

As Best 'Dressed'

NEW YORK (AP) — President Reagan, known for his natty dress both in the White House and on the ranch, has been chosen best-dressed statesman by the Fashion Foundation of America.

The president was bested last year by West Germany's Helmut Schmidt.

Dustin Hoffman was named best dressed in the "screen" category on Sunday, but for his skirts rather than his sportscoats. Hoffman plays an actor who poses as a woman in the film "Tootsie."

The foundation, a garment industry trade group, annually chooses the best-dressed men in 10 categories, according to John Tudor, chairman of the foundation's men's division.

Others on the list were:

—Sports: Herschel Walker.

—International Society: Prince Philip of Great Britain.

—Business: New York real estate baron Harry Helmsley.

—Stage: Actor David Cassidy, now starring on Broadway in "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

—Government: Gov. Bob Graham of Florida.

—Civic Affairs: Mayor Angelo Martinelli of Yonkers, N.Y.

—Communications: New York City newscaster Chuck Scarborough.

—Entertainment: Perry Como.
