

Sorry, Toledo

What makes David Cassidy proud? "I retired and left at the top," the pop singer says. "I didn't end up playing some lounge in Toledo, and that means a lot to me." And probably to Toledo. Cassidy's rocket to fame spun out of orbit after The Partridge Family ended in 1974. "I was on my way to becoming a serious actor when I chose to do this one job, and then I became this thing — David Cassidy, the thing." At 40, the thing is cutting an album, due in stores by fall.
