

Jerry Lewis to lead Thanksgiving parade

Grand Marshal Jerry Lewis will lead the 41st Annual Thanksgiving Day Parade at 10 a.m. Thursday in downtown Houston.

The parade will feature eight giant floats, eight smaller floats, eight huge helium balloons, 200 clowns, 100 individual entries and another 500 costumed characters.

This year's theme is "Celebrate the Children," with segments like "Saturday Morning Cartoons," "Summer Vacation" and "When I Grow Up."

Other celebrities in the parade will be rock singer David Cassidy, Bronson Pinchot of ABC's Perfect Strangers, Wimbledon finalist Zina Garrison, Broadway star Jennifer Holliday, Leonardo of Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and Bart Simpson and his family.

Alan Thicke, star of ABC's Growing Pains, will be a guest commentator on the televised broadcast of the parade.
