

David Cassidy thinks he loves you

If you've been to Las Vegas lately, you've had an opportunity to see David Cassidy steal the show in the big high-tech production "EFX" at the MGM Grand. When he left the show Dec. 31, the MGM took out full page ads in Daily Variety and the Las Vegas Review Journal thanking him and acknowledging that he was responsible for bringing in more than one million paid customers to see the show.

Cassidy makes his first northern Nevada appearance June 26 at Caesars Tahoe. Besides "EFX" material, he'll be delivering numbers from his new CD, "Old Trick New Dog."

Cassidy first scored as the teenybopper heartthrob on the "Partridge Family" TV series in the 1970s. On the new CD, he revisits those days with three songs, recorded with updated arrangements: "I Think I Love You," "I Can Feel Your Heartbeat" and "I Woke Up in Love This Morning."

Cassidy, who did several Broadway shows prior to "EFX," has become quite a showman. He appears in the Circus Maximus room at 9:30 p.m. Saturday. Tickets cost $20 and $30.

Details: (800) 648-3353. — Gaye Delaplane, Reno Gazette-Journal casino writer